Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

INTRODUCTION:

Life after Death, is such an important part of our Church's teaching, as shown us in the Word of God today. Since Jesus has risen, we who are baptized into Christ, share even now in this risen life.

READINGS:

First Reading: 2 Mac 7:1-2, 9-14

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 17:1, 5-6, 8 & 15

Second Reading: 2 Thes 2:16-3:5

Gospel: Lk 20:27-38

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL:

Celebrant: Brothers and Sisters, we pray that we may be courageous enough, to walk the path of salvation, as children of the resurrection, and so we say:

Response: LORD HEAR OUR PRAYER

For Pope Francis, Bishops, clergy and religious: that their hearts may be strengthened, as they preach and spread the Kingdom of God, we pray...

For ourselves and the Church: that we may always be united to the Risen Lord, and be nourished by His love and compassion, we pray...

For those in authority and leadership: that they may work genuinely and selflessly, to promote the values of peace, justice and equality, we pray...

For all the faithful departed, in this month of November: Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them; may they rest in peace, we pray...

For all our personal needs and intentions [Pause], we pray...

CELEBRANT: Eternal Father, we thank you for your promise to us, of the resurrection and eternal life. Accept the prayers we have made and assist us to live lives pleasing to you. Through Christ Our Lord. AMEN.
