D F#m Bm G D

My soul is thirsting for God, the God of my life.

D

Like the deer that yearns for running streams,
O send forth your light and your truth;
And I will come to the altar of God,

Bm A D

so my soul is yearning for you, my God.
they will guide me on;
to God my joy and gladness.

D

My soul is thirsting for God, the living God;
They will bring me to your holy mountain,
To you I will give thanks on the lyre,

Bm A D

When can I enter and appear before the face of God?
to the place where you dwell.
O God, my God.
