

16 February 2025
SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

Introduction:

Dear friends in Christ, nothing in this world can rob us of our peace of mind and interior joy, if our trust is in the crucified and risen Christ, who by his Beatitudes teaches us to have our dependence on God and thus be satisfied and consoled. Let us pray for the grace to tread the path of the beatitudes so that we are always filled with peace and joy.

Readings:

First Reading: Jer 17:5-8
Psalm: Ps 1: 1-2,3, 4&6
Second Reading: 1Cor 15:12,16-20
Gospel: Lk 6: 17, 20-26

Prayers of the Faithful:

Celebrant: Let us now express our needs to our Heavenly Father showing him our dependence on Him.
Response: Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for Pope Francis, the Bishops, the Clergy and the Religious, that they may carry on the Mission of Christ, placing all their trust in Him. ... we pray...

We pray for our Political and World leaders, that they may strive to bring peace among nations and work for the Common good of all. ... we pray...

We pray for all those who are sick, those ailing with terminal diseases and suffering that putting their trust in the Lord, they may depend on him for their healing and solace. ... we pray...

We pray for all those who are faced with trials and difficulties in life, that clinging to the virtue of hope, they may put their trust in the grace of the Crucified Christ. ... we pray...

We pray for our personal and local needs... (pause for 7 seconds) ... we pray...

Celebrant:

Be near to those who call on you, O Lord, that to all those who put their trust in you, you would graciously grant your protection and assistance in this life and that they may become full heirs of your promise for eternity. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
