01 NOVEMBER 2026
THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Introduction

Today, the Church rejoices as we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. We honour the countless men and women who now share in the glory of heaven. The saints are living witnesses to the saving grace of our God. Today, we are reminded that the saints inspire and urge us to seek their company in the heavenly kingdom. Through their example, they show us that holiness is possible in every age and at all circumstances. Therefore, we are called to strive towards the blessedness that God has promised to all of us who love Him faithfully. Let us now celebrate these sacred mysteries with grateful hearts, praising God for the gift of the saints and renewing our desire to walk the path of holiness.

First Reading:	Rev 7: 2-4, 9-14
Responsorial Psalm:	Ps 24: 1-2, 3-4ab, 5-6
Second Reading:	1 Jn 3: 1-3
Gospel:	Mt 5: 1-12a

Prayers of the Faithful

Celebrant: Through the intercession of all the saints, we now make our prayers and petitions to our Lord.

Response: Gracious Father, hear our prayer.

For the Holy Church, Pope Leo, all bishops, priests, religions men and women, that they may be faithful witnesses who leads all people toward the holiness we are called for. We pray to the Lord.

For Holy Father's Universal Prayer Intention: For the proper use of wealth: Let us pray for the proper use of wealth that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less. We pray to the Lord.

For the leaders and all men and women of our country, that together we may seek to always safeguard and foster the values of truth, justice and peace. We pray to the Lord.

For all of us that we may continue to grow in holiness through small acts of prayer and service. We pray to the Lord.

For the sick, the aged and the homebound, that through the intercession of the saints, they may experience the healing touch of our Lord. We pray to the Lord.

For our personal intentions, we now pray to the Lord in silence (pause). We pray to the Lord.

Celebrant: Heavenly Father, we thank you for listening to our prayers. Strengthen us on our journey to your heavenly kingdom. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.