ARCHDIOCESE OF BOMBAY

15 NOVEMBER 2026

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

COMMISSION FOR LITURGY

Introduction

Dear friends in Christ, on the Penultimate Sunday of this Liturgical Year, the Church depicts Christ, as the head of His Household, who distributes gifts and talents according to one's ability. And on his return, He will surely demand accountability for them. As members of His household let us pray that we be productive in the gifts and talents that he has given us, so that we may be truly found as good and faithful servants of Christ!

First Reading: Prov 31:10–13, 19-20, 30-31
Responsorial Psalm: Ps 128: 1-2, 3, 4-5
Second Reading: 1 Thess 5:1-6
Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

Prayers of the Faithful

Celebrant: Let us now express our needs of our world to the Lord of the household as we say:

Response: Lord, graciously hear us.

- We pray for Leo Our Pope, for the Bishops, Priests and Religious everywhere that each in the ability of their office may be productive in what they have been entrusted through their calling. Let us pray.
- We pray for those in government, that they may strive selflessly to be accountable in their ministries, thus serving the Common good of all people. Let us pray
- We pray for Our PPC, as well as Cells and associations, that they may exercise servant-leadership by being accountable to the mission entrusted in the spirit of Synodality Let us pray.
- We pray that we may use our God-given talents for the good of the Community thus building our Parish as One faith-filled Community. Let us pray
- We pray for our personal needs (pause in silence) … Let us pray

Celebrant: Turn your people to you with all their heart, O Lord we pray, for you protect even those who go astray, but when they serve you with undivided hearts, you sustain them with still greater care. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.